

The Arizona Game and Fish Department may stock the following species of fish in Arizona as part of the Sport Fish Stocking Program funded partially by the Wildlife and Sport Fish Restoration Program grant funds. Some of these species are raised in our hatchery system, some may be purchased from private vendors and others of these species may be collected and transported within the state (following special procedures to eliminate the movement of unwanted organisms).

Species
Apache trout	common carp	roundtail chub arctic grayling	cutthroat trout	smallmouth bass black crappie	Gila trout	sunfish hybrids bluegill	grass carp	threadfin shad brook trout	largemouth bass	walleye brown trout	rainbow trout channel catfish	redeer sunfish	